AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provides scientific assistance to the Program Officers in all phases of the proposal review process.
- Generates relevant scientific and/or administrative data from Foundation-wide databases that can be using in preparing analytical and interpretative reports and guides. This includes writing programs using query language, the development and use of other applicable software. Reports include one time requests and recurring reports. Assists in tabulating and analyzing data for program annual reports.
- Assists Division FastLane users in answering technical questions regarding all aspects of the FastLane system.
- Edits panel summaries for recommended actions to provide feedback to principal investigators.
- Performs library research for the program and technical guidance for computer programs.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Baccalaureate degree in behavioral or neural sciences or a related science. Some administrative, managerial or professional experience related to the position is desirable.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS: Final ranking is based upon job-related experience, training, education, awards, performance appraisals or letters of recommendation, and the following knowledge, skills, and abilities.

- Ability to communicate effectively with technical and non-technical management and staff, both orally and in writing, on matters of a programmatic, technical, and administrative nature, including ability to instruct and work effectively with individuals who have a variety of backgrounds and training.
- Knowledge of customary fact-find approaches, documentation procedures, and analytical and evaluative techniques, including the ability to represent results from statistical data collection and analysis in a variety of formats to effectively communicate information to lay and technical audiences.
- Knowledge of and ability to use standard guides, such as directives, circulars, bulletins, publications, etc. to develop, analyze, and summarize special statistical tabulations.
- Knowledge of the principles, concepts and methodologies in the field of behavioral or neural sciences and/or related sciences.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills, and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement, which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Selective and Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below.

If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.
